

The Virden Oil Capitals, a junior 'A' ice hockey team based in Virden, Manitoba, compete in the Manitoba Junior Hockey League. ■

== History ==

The Virden Oil Capitals, a Canadian junior 'A' ice hockey team currently based in Virden, Manitoba and competing in the Manitoba Junior Hockey League, have a rich history. Originally founded as the Winnipeg Rangers in 1956, the franchise went through various name changes and relocations, becoming the St. Boniface Saints in 1967 and the Winnipeg Saints in 2000 before moving to Virden in 2012. The Oil Capitals boast a strong record of success, having won five Turnbull Cups (the league championship) and finishing as runner-up seven times. ■

== Season-by-season record ==

The Virden Oil Capitals, a Canadian junior 'A' hockey team in Virden, Manitoba, have a long history dating back to 1956 when they were known as the Winnipeg Rangers. The team has undergone several name changes and relocations, eventually becoming the Virden Oil Capitals in 2012 after moving to Virden and playing in the newly built Tundra Oil & Gas Place. The Oil Capitals, with a strong tradition of success, have won five Manitoba Junior Hockey League championships (Turnbull Cups) and been runner-up seven times. They compete in the Manitoba Junior Hockey League. ■

=== Playoffs ===

The Virden Oil Capitals, a Canadian junior 'A' hockey team based in Virden, Manitoba, have a long and storied history. Originally established as the Winnipeg Rangers in 1956, the team went through several name changes and relocations, eventually becoming the Virden Oil Capitals in 2012 after a group of local investors purchased the Winnipeg Saints franchise and moved it to Virden. They have had significant success, winning five league championships (Turnbull Cups) and finishing as runner-up seven times. The team's playoff history includes wins in the Manitoba/Saskatchewan Championship (1971), the Turnbull Cup (1971, 1981, 1994) and losses in the Anavet Cup (1971, 1981, 1994).

■■

== External links ==

The Virden Oil Capitals, a Canadian junior 'A' hockey team in Virden, Manitoba, are a team with a long and rich history. Originally founded in 1956 as the Winnipeg Rangers, the team has undergone various relocations and name changes over the years, finally becoming the Virden Oil Capitals in 2012 when they moved to Virden and started playing in the newly built Tundra Oil & Gas Place. The team has consistently achieved success, winning five league championships (Turnbull Cups) and reaching the finals seven other times. They are members of the Manitoba Junior Hockey League. ■

== References ==